MOTION FAILED.

Motion by Williams to adopt a resolution to direct Gerald Trimble (CCDC Executive Vice President), Dean Dunphy (CCDC President), a member of the Planning Commission, Mr. Henderson (Theatre Square representative), and another member of the Theatre Square proponents to work together and within 45 days, attempt to develop an economically feasible plan amending the existing plan for the Horton Plaza Centre Development to salvage and incorporate as much of the Theatre Square proposal as possible. Additionally, this is to be conditioned upon the affected property owners waiving any claim for damages or litigation expenses in the event that any reconfiguration of the project results in abandonment of the condemnation with respect to their parcels. Also, that no demolition of any historic sites, including the Knights of Pythias building, Lyceum Theater, the Grand Horton Hotel, and the Knickerbocker Hotel, will take place until the Reciprocal Easement Agreement is signed or a bond or cash deposit is posted by the developer to insure that the project will be completed.

Second by Lowery.

Vote: 6-2 (Schnaubelt and Gotch voting nay; Stirling not present)

ADOPTED AS RESOLUTION NO. 502.

Motion by Williams to adopt the resolution authorizing condemnation proceedings in the Horton Plaza Redevelopment Project.
